EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

This Office action is responsive to the amendment filed on January 02, 2003.

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
2. The application has been amended as follows: cancel claims 12-21 as being directed to a non-elected invention (without traverse).
3. Claims 4-6, 8-10 and 22 are allowed and renumbered as 1, 2, 4-7 and 3, respectively.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art taken either singly or in combination fails to anticipate or fairly suggest: a) the surfaces of an electrically insulating layer and an electrically conductive layer being prevented from facing the electric element, which would extend along the common flat face (as recited in claim 4), b) the surface of a first layer of Nickel-base metal, which is prevented from facing to the electric element, extends between the electric element and the surface of the electrically insulating layer prevented from facing to the electric element in the thickness direction of the electrically conductive layer (as claimed in claim 6), c) a metallic film (e.g., Nickel-base) extending on the surface of the electrically insulating layer prevented from facing to the electric element (as recited in claim 8), d) a metallic film extending on the surface of the electrically insulating layer prevented from facing to the electric element, wherein the metallic film is electrically connected to the electrically conductive layer (as recited in claim 9), and e) a metallic film extending on the surface of the electrically insulating layer prevented from facing to the electric element, wherein the metallic film is magnetically permeable (as recited in claim 10), especially when these limitations are considered within the specific combination claimed.

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
